Kiewit Building Group Inc. Scholarship Program Application Form: 2018-2019 School Year

Kiewit Building Group Inc., a subsidiary of Kiewit Corporation, is one of the state's leading contractors and engineering firms, and is committed to building a better Hawaii. The Kiewit companies have served Hawaii for more than 30 years specializing in construction services, pre-construction and general contracting. As a local builder, Kiewit Building Group's focus includes high-rise, commercial/retail, medical office buildings, hospitals, hotels, military, education and public works projects.

Kiewit is dedicated to individual training and development for Hawaii's youth. For the ninth consecutive year, Kiewit is offering a scholarship to high school seniors who want to pursue a degree in engineering, architecture or construction management.

Scholarship applicants must meet the following criteria to be eligible:
- Minimum high school GPA of 3.0 (original sealed transcript required with application)
- Accepted as a full-time undergraduate student to an accredited four-year university
- Intends to pursue a major in engineering, architecture, or construction management
- Two letters of recommendation

Applicants should complete the application form and write an essay addressing the following topics in the order listed:
- Academic performance
- Academic/professional goals
- Financial need (ability to pay for college; other financial assistance to be received)
- Extracurricular activities
- Statement on why applicant should be considered
- Other comments to assist in the application process

NOTE: Essay should be typed, no more than 500 words.

The applicant's school counselor, academic advisor, or administrator must endorse each application to verify enrollment. Scholarship applications are reviewed in May, and awards are announced in June. Up to three scholarships of $2,500 will be granted in 2019.
